

EGMOND AAN ZEE, THE NETHERLANDS

2022 INSA CONFERENCE

3 DAYS . 6 GUEST SPEAKERS . UNLIMITED NETWORKING

Making Waves to Advance School Attendance

The International Network for School Attendance (INSA) is the only worldwide organization dedicated to promoting attendance and reducing absenteeism. Its annual conference is an international, interdisciplinary event. Join us from October 5-7 at Egmond aan Zee in the Netherlands, to advance our collective work in the field of school attendance. The theme for the Conference is 'Making Waves to Advance School Attendance'. View the preliminary program and visit the conference website.

Workshops at the 2022 Conference

This year we added workshops to the program, alongside Keynote and Invited Addresses, around 70 presentations, Round Table Discussions, and the Marketplace for Practice and Research. Choose from among 12 workshops, at no extra cost:

NEW

- Schools for presence: A practical guide to building a school culture for attendance
- Promoting attendance through regional and national policy and initiatives
- Educational interventions for school refusal
- Back2School, a manualized modular CBT program
- Make change! Key findings and tips on school attendance advocacy
- Exploring why autism/neurodivergence and hypermobility issues are 'double jeopardy'
- Data + community-based teamwork = effective interventions for promoting attendance
- Mentalizing as a motor in the approach to school refusal
- Supporting parents of students who refuse to attend school
- Addressing school refusal among adolescents with autism
- A Tier 3 multidisciplinary approach to support attendance
- Implementing outdoor therapy within a systemic school refusal treatment approach

Register Now for this Wave-Making Event

Visit the conference website and click on register. The 2022 Conference Committee warmly welcomes you to Egmond aan Zee.